J. M. Adams, Ag't.

A guest from Henderson, who was here last week, who is a Radical and therefore an impartial observer, gave it as his opinion that McClain would carry every precinct in Henderson county over Vance. It can, however, hardly be considered that such an opinion of "Old" McClain deserves many marks.

The public in the city may be assured that the city may be lighted by electricity, but this is not a settled fact.—News of the Fair.

The public in the city may be lighted to night by electricity, but this is not a settled fact.

There were six votes for and against a motion to continue the old contract until the electric light plant was ready for use and the new two were voted for. The new contract will be made when the new plant is ready.

What is the new plant?
